“Who is your No1 Soccer Player in the World?”

At NAIS we believe that we have much to be grateful for. One of our strategic objectives is to reach out to communities and individuals and to share our knowledge, experience or any other way possible that might make a difference.

NAIS decided it was now an opportune time to raise funds for the benefit of a cancer patient. Please help us in supporting this cause.

“ One type of absolute risk is lifetime risk, which is the probability that an individual will develop cancer during the course of a lifetime.”

NAIS has a brand new website!
